

NCCU Enforcement Rules for Full-time Faculty Publication Subsidy Application in Department of English

Passed by the R&D Committee on January 16th, 2003

Passed on the Department Council Meeting on February 14th, 2003

Passed on the Department Council Meeting in January 9th, 2004

Passed on the Department Council Meeting in February 26th, 2009

Article I. This department sets the Rules just to encourage the teachers to publish their academic papers in academic journals or on conferences, or publish their works.

Article II. The works or papers published in the local or foreign academic journals by the full-time teachers in this department, and explicitly indicate their affiliation with this department in the works or papers, can be subsidised with NT$5,000 once per person per year.

Article III. The papers published in the local or foreign academic conferences by the full-time teachers in this department, and explicitly indicate their affiliation with this department in the works or papers, can be subsidised with NT$3,000 once per person per year.

Article IV. The budget of the sum needed in the Rules is opened by the Department Dean every year, and audited by the Finance Group and then implemented. The total sum is verified and pronounced by the end of December every year.

Article V. The teachers who apply for subsidies must fill in one copy of the application and hand in relevant documents, and the copies are to be collected by the date of December 25th every year. Applicants must maintain their publication list on the English Department website.

Article VI. The papers applied to be subsidised should be mainly about the relevant fields of this department and can only be the ones published in that year of application. Applicants cannot propose subsidy application if the paper proposed has received funding from other institutions.

Article VII. The Rules are implemented after the Department Council Meeting has passed them, and it is the same for revision.